BARBOURVILLE HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Miss Barton's room, the 5th A and 6th grades was awarded the attendance-punctuality banner this week, again, as they had the highest average. Nearly all the rooms had a good average, considering the bad weather. Below are the general averages for the week:

Miss Barton	—97.13%
Miss Pelly	—96.85%
Miss Parker	—96.04%
Prof. Oldfield	—95.60%
Prof. Faulkner	—95.50%
Miss Prater	—94.60%
Prof. Mills	—90.00%

Miss Barton's room has caught the banner spirit, as a few weeks ago they were at the end of list, but finally encouraged by receiving it last week, they found it easier to obtain this week. Who will have it next?

Last Monday afternoon a game of basketball was played between the High School Boys' team and the Union College boys' team. The score was 27 to 16 in favor of Union.

Do not forget the great Education Convention of the Upper Cumberland which will be held in Barbourville next Friday and Saturday, December 1 and 2. Come out and see exhibits, brought from schools all over Southern Kentucky and incidentally see what your own high school is doing.

Last Friday Supt. Hugh M. Oldfield was called to his home in Columbus, O., on account of the death of his brother-in-law, Rance E. Harding.

Mrs. Oldfield taught the senior and sophomore room Monday during the absence of Prof. Oldfield.

Supreme Court of U. S. Affirms Bid Damage Suit

In June, 1913, Edward Parker, the son of Nathan Parker, was killed on his engine in the yards at Middlesboro while working for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company. Soon after his death Nathan Parker, as administrator of Edward Parker, thru his attorney, J. M. Robison, filed suit in the Knox Circuit Court for damages. The case was tried before Judge Sampson and a verdict was awarded the plaintiff for $7,000.00. The railroad company carried the case to the Court of Appeals of Kentucky which court affirmed the judgment of the Knox Circuit Court. The railroad company then appealed the case to the Supreme Court of the United States and a few days ago this court, the highest in the nation, affirmed the judgment of the Knox Circuit Court and the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

We understand that this is the first case that ever went from the Knox Circuit Court to the Supreme Court of the United States. It was one of the hardest fought cases ever tried in the state.

The judgment now amounts to nearly $10,000.00

To Entertain.

James D. Jarvis and E. G. Lyons will entertain next Thursday from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. on top of Paint Hill. The public is most cordially invited and earnestly requested to attend. It will be free to all. This will be Mr. Lyons' last trip here as he will be transferred to other territory, and James D. has sold out his interest in the store of Perkins & Co. This will undoubtedly be the greatest event of the season.

Charley Randalls Convicted

Last Wednesday morning the jury in the case of the Commonwealth against Charley Randalls, who was on trial for the murder of Bessie Holt, brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed his punishment at confinement in the State penitentiary for life.

Mr. Randalls was represented by lawyer A. Smith and R. N. Jarvis, while the prosecution was represented by J. B. Snyder and J. F. Catron.

Messrs. Smith and Jarvis made a noble fight for their client and we believe they did all that could have been done by any one and much more than could have been done by many others who practice law. In fact, there are no better lawyers to be found than these two gentlemen, yet the jury brought in a verdict for wilful murder. It is said the case will go to the Court of Appeals.

No Contest

There has been some newspaper mention that Judge Roberson, of Pikeville, would likely contest the election of Judge Sampson as Judge of the Kentucky Court of Appeals from this district. But, the Advocate is not prepared to believe this, because it seems so ridiculous and unreasonable.

In the first place, the only question which Judge Roberson could raise is the same one tried out in the Kirk contest, and the Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the Circuit Court, declaring Judge Sampson nominee of the party. The judgment in the Knox Circuit Court in that case is written out in full on the order books and signed by the trial Judge, and the Court of Appeals affirmed this judgment and so says the opinions in the books.

In the general election there is no charge of any wrong doing so far as Judge Sampson is concerned, and could be none. There is no claim he did not file a statement of expense and there is no other technical question raised. He was elected by about seventeen thousand majority, which is considerable more majority than the head of the Republican ticket received in the same counties, and the largest majority ever received by a Republican in this district. In other words, he ran ahead of his ticket. He carried Judge Roberson's county by a large majority. There is no doubt that Judge Sampson is the choice of the people, and we do not believe any reputable lawyer who aspires to the office of Judge of the Kentucky Court of Appeals would contest an election upon such narrow and flimsy grounds. Our information is that Judge Roberson is a good lawyer and a man of good standing in his community, and we do not believe that he can afford to, or that he will enter a contest in this case where where he knows it would be hopeless and where he has been so overwhelmingly defeated at the polls. This should not be done, and we hope it will not be done.

Good Farm For Sale

I have a good farm for sale, about 40 acres, a fine bunch of timber, good orchard, and one oil well, with oil in paying quantities. Located about 2 1/2 miles from Barbourville, Ky., close to church and school. For particulars, call or write Mrs. Mary S. Hamilton, near Fair Ground, Barbourville, Ky. 10-50 4t.

James S. Golden.

After the smoke of the late political battle has cleared away and we take inventory of our forces, and review the conduct of our leaders and fighters, both old and young, we feel that we can congratulate Knox County on the number of her sons who went into the fray and fought with manly vigor to restore our country to the Republican standard.

Among the many worthy young men of our county who engaged in this fight we predict that none will mount the ladder of fame quicker or bring more honor to his native county, than James S. Golden, son of Capt. B. B. Golden.

Young Mr. Golden, who is now only 25 years of age, has already established himself before the people of this county as a stalwart Republican and active worker, and one of no mean ability in our late campaign.

Mr. Golden was born in this county in 1891, graduated at the Kentucky University in 1912, and out of a class of 250 none stood higher. After completing his literary course he took a course in law at the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, one of the best law schools in the country, and by his ability and untiring efforts completed a three year course in that school in two years, and he is the only person to accomplish that in the long life of the institution.

Keep your eye on this young man—with his ability and energy he will be heard from in the great battle for honors and fame in this life.

Dishman Flats Destroyed by Fire

Last Tuesday about 11:20 the fire alarm was turned in and it was found that the old Dishman Flats were ablaze and that it was a fight to the finish if the remainder of the block was saved.

The fire started in the Southwest corner of the building and before the department could get there the whole house appeared to be in a flame, but the boys did their full duty and within an hour the fire was out.

The Flats were occupied by Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stansbury. They lived in the upper part and had one of the finest ladies' department stores in the lower part anywhere to be found. The whole stock of goods was lost and most part of the furniture was either burned or damaged so that it is practically worthless.

The damage to the building is total, as it will have to be removed. Judge Dishman did not have any insurance on it at all. The store of Mrs. Stansbury, which was called "The Little Shop" was a total loss. It is estimated that the total loss is $4,000.00 with $1,000.00 insurance. The household goods, worth about $2,000.00 were partially covered by insurance. There was quite a lot of other goods stored in the building and most part of it was removed, but it was badly damaged in moving and by water and smoke.

This was the most dangerous fire that we have had for many years and it may be justly said that it was the young men of the city who volunteered to fight the flames that it was put under control as soon as it was. It looked like the water was in better condition to fight the fire than usual as there was no lack of pressure, and the company had a large supply in the reservoir and ready to turn on the pumps if necessary.

Walter Cody, one of the nozzle men, was overcome by smoke and received several bruises, but soon recovered.

Electrical Demonstration

Last Tuesday Mr. J. T. Noe, representing H. G. Tafel & Co., of Louisville, gave a most interesting demonstration of electrical appliances. Mr. Noe is an artist at the business and showed the public generally that it was easy to get along if you have the electric current.

He demonstrated how easy it is to make coffee, bake biscuits, fry eggs, cook roast, and in fact, cook anything, no matter what, from soup beans to the most delicate kind of cooking. He did not stop at that. He showed how to run the sewing machine, grind coffee, rock the cradle, churn the milk, beat the butter and keep the baby quiet. He could have shown, if he would, how to kiss by electricity. That is, he could have shown, with a switch properly arranged, how you could kiss your sweetheart, your wife, or some other man's wife, in the dark when any one would swear it did not happen for the light was burning all the time.

The light company here will handle all these accessories all the time and will be glad to show you how easy it is to live within your own means by using these electrical utensils. They will soon have continuous current for domestic use and it will be easy for you to have a quick lunch at any time in the day or night and you need not worry about the price of coal nor whether or not the gas is working.

Some Things New And Entertaining.

The Ladies Aid of the Christian Church will hold a Ladies' Exchange for one day only, Dec. 12, in Miss Sallie Hoskins' Millinery Store.
Here you will find all the attractive hand-work—useful and practical articles—nothing over 75c, for which this organization is famous. The usual good things to eat will be here in abundance.

What Happened to Ohio?

Ohio, the Buckeye State, the State that has always been in the forefront of the Republican rank, has shown itself to be very indifferent in the last two elections. In the first we can see to some extent why it went into the Democratic rank, but in the last it seems to us that there was no excuse for it at all.

Ohio, when this country, confronted the savagery of the lash, the barbarism of the classes and the insanity of secession, was one of the first to come to the front; the call of Lincoln to help to perpetuate this nation, and not to suffer it to become a confederacy. Has the old state of Ohio forgotten itself? Or has it been hypnotized by another race of people? It has been called the jeweled diadem of all the states in this whole union. It has been the back on the principle of Lincoln and war. It has always been for that high and noble principle of protection until there seems to have come over the entire state a coma, or it is under a hypnotic spell.

In 1912 the party was divided, and but for that fact it would have given the nominee of the Republican party an overwhelming majority. Take the vote of Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt together and the state in that year was Republican. In the year of 1906 the state went Democratic. Ohio has sent six of her illustrious sons to the presidency: —Hays, Garfield, Grant, McKinley, Taft and Harrison. Some of these the greatest of all the presidents ever elected. Never, until 1912, did Ohio ever go over to the Democrats, and then by the party being divided.

We say there is something wrong with Ohio. It can't be that she has lost her patriotism for we believe there are yet many who bore the stars and stripes in the bloody conflict back in the sixties and their sons have heard the story of those days, graphically told by their fathers, who after the war came home to take up the business he left when his country called him to its defense. We believe we can imagine some of those whose father left them in care of a tender and loving mother, who did not return, but laid his life upon the altar of his country that his children might enjoy the future in a country that was undivided. We do not yet believe these men have gone entirely back on the principles for which their fathers fought.

What then is the matter? We can not conceive, but we are prone to guess that it was the same there that it was in some other parts of the country. "He kept us out of war" or it may be that it is the price of the necessities of life going up, or it may be that it is the eight hour law that does not reach but one class and that the best paid class of people in the world.

We predict there will be some great changes in the next four years; that peace will be declared in the European countries; that the time will be when the people on the other side of the Atlantic will set themselves busy to regain what they have lost by the carnage of war, and that the billions of dollars which have come to us on account of the war will

What would he give for the coffee you serve?

Like a million other women, you can serve coffee that he would give most anything to have—coffee which starts the day "right" for all.

Everyone loves the rich flavor of Arbuckle's Coffee. Of all the coffees in America today, it is by far the most popular!

One woman says: "My husband used to swallow his coffee and hurry off. Now we have Arbuckle's and you'd think it was Sunday the way he lingers over his breakfast."

Until you try Arbuckle's you will never know what a difference good coffee can make in your home.

Today there are whole towns where Arbuckle's is practically the only coffee used. In one State, alone, in a year, four pounds of Arbuckle's Coffee was used for every man, woman and child in the State—four times as many pounds of coffee as the population of the State! Arbuckle Bros., New York.

be sought and gained by the ones who sent it over here. Then it will be that Ohio will wake up to the full sense of her duty to the party that has always bridged them over. They will come back to the party of Grant, Garfield and McKinley. They will, in our judgment, in the year of 1920, give the greatest majority for the Republican nominee that was ever given any man for the presidency.

The Republican Handicap

Although President Wilson has been reelected and will serve another four years in the White House, yet a study of the election returns will show that Hughes received a large majority of the electoral votes in those states where there was a real political contest. In eleven Southern states, which constitute the Solid South, and which have voted the Democratic national ticket without fail ever since the Civil War, there are 126 electoral votes. It would have been perfectly safe ten years ago to make a bet at the odds of 100 to 1 that all those states would support the Democratic national candidate in 1916, regardless of who that candidate might be.

With such a situation presented, it is absolutely true to say that there was no political contest in those states. The total electoral vote in the country is 531. Subtracting the 126 electoral votes in the South, we have 405 electoral votes from states in which there was a contest between the Republican and Democratic parties. In those states Governor Hughes won 255 electoral votes, and Woodrow Wilson 150.

The Republican candidate went into the campaign with a handicap of 23 per cent. Every Republican candidate for the Presidency has exactly the same handicap. For all practical purposes, we could as well abandon the national election in the Southern states and count the electoral votes for the Democratic nominees without any other formality. Neither the tariff nor any foreign or domestic policies of the administration, nor even the "kept us out of war" argument had any influence whatever in the Southern states this year. The election in those states was decided in advance of the adoption of platforms or the nomination of candidates. In view of these facts, Mr. Wilson can hardly figure his election an unqualified victory. He received about three eighths of the electoral votes in the states where there was a real political contest.

Tuggle Announces

We call your attention to the announcement of Hon. Jesse D. Tuggle as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of County Judge.

In doing this we are sure that it is not necessary for us to undertake to tell you who he is. He is one of the best known men in our county, and has been known for many years as a man who stands on the record of the past. He served the people of Knox County as County Attorney and has always done his whole duty. He comes to the people as a candidate for the office of County Judge not for the money but to serve the people with their interest at heart.

With him as County Judge the people could justly boast, at the end of his term, that he put the county out of debt, and that the roads of Knox County have been built. He has made a success at everything he has undertaken and will make the citizens of the county a real Judge.

Mr. Tuggle does not belong to any ring or clique but stands out boldly in all he does. He will make this campaign on that high plane of doing things which has been characteristic of him all his life. He wants to see every man before the election and tell him his plans and try if possible to have a fair understanding with each citizen of the county before the election.

Deficit Nearly A Hundred Millions

There are two methods of computing the deficit in the United States Treasury, one is by ascertaining the difference between ordinary receipts and ordinary disbursements. The deficit thus ascertained indicates the extent to which the administration has been delinquent in the management of the ordinary affairs of the government. The other computation strikes the difference between the total receipts and total disbursements. The total disbursements include not only the ordinary disbursements for the maintenance of government service, but also expenditures on account of the public debt and operation of the Panama Canal. On November 10, the deficit, according to ordinary receipts and disbursements, was $85,940,000, and according to total receipts and total disbursements was $97,712,000. The latter deficit is really the amount the government is behind in its finances for the present fiscal year, which began July 1st.

Trade Unsoundness Admitted

Last week the Department of Commerce advertised for ten men at $10 per day and expenses to investigate opportunities for trade expansion in foreign countries. Thus it practically admits the unsoundness of our present trade. We now have an excess of exports over imports amounting to $3,500,000,000 per year—unprecedented in the history of the world. During the recent campaign, the administration pointed to this as an evidence of Democratic efficiency. Republicans declared that it was merely temporary and would end with the war. Though the administration already has many men working in foreign lands seeking new markets, they want ten more men at government expense to find new markets—and at a time when our own people are having a hard time buying our own products.

A Correction

It has been stated that Mr. Walter T. Cody, who fought the fire so nobly last Tuesday, was drunk. This we refute. Mr. Cody was not drunk nor in the least intoxicated. If he had been he could not have done the good work that he did. It is true that he became suffocated in the heat and smoke and was found down, but as soon as he got a few breaths of fresh air he was back in the fight and fought until the fire was entirely out. He had nothing in the building, having moved from that place several months ago. We make this statement because we know Mr. Cody and because there are always some one who wants to tell something startling every time there is even a dog fight. Mr. Cody is one of our best citizens and we feel proud of him.

Eight Hour Law Goes Glimmering

Last Wednesday Judge Hook, one of the ablest Federal Judges in the United States, declared the Adamson "Eight Hour Law" was unconstitutional.

Those who were so enthusiastic for Mr. Wilson in his race were told that this law was not a good one, and that it would not stand the test; that it was only a vote getter, and, lo and behold, this is one of the things the Republicans said would come to pass. There are many others that were predicted by the Republicans that are yet to come, and they will not come as surprises, either.

We have it on reliable authority that Mrs. John W. Hughes will shortly announce as a candidate for Superintendent, subject to the action of the Republican party. She has had many years experience in educational work and has a large acquaintance all over the county.

News Briefs From Washington.

Washington, Nov. 22. (Special Correspondence) Reports received here from Indiana indicate the cause for the large Republican victory in that state this year. Although the campaign of 1916 is just over, the republicans are already organizing for the next election and are determined to sweep the state in 1918.

Now the Truth

Information received here from the South shows that within the last year 120,000 colored people, chiefly laborers, have emigrated to Northern states. Late in the recent campaign the Department of Justice gave out a statement conveying the impression that Republican campaign managers were responsible for the northward drift of colored people and that the object was the control of elections in Northern states. The information now made public is that these men have come north because of the urgent demand for men and the high wages paid in munitions plants, mines, railroad work, and general construction.

Busy Days Ahead

Considerable interest is manifested in Washington over the election of a woman to the House of Representatives. Of course, the first Congresswoman, Miss Jeannette Rankin, will be the center of a great deal of attention. She is a suffragist, and therefore, it may be expected that she will be greatly sought by a large number of suffragists who have ideas they wish incorporated into legislation. Her office in the House Office Building will undoubtedly be one of the busiest at the Capitol.

Many Changes in

Supreme Court

It seems likely that the Supreme Court will undergo an almost complete change during the incumbency of Woodrow Wilson in the White House. Already he has appointed Justices McReynolds, Brandeis and Clark. Three Justices, White, McKenna and Holmes, have passed the age of retirement. Moreover Justice Day is in very poor health and it is considered unlikely that he will continue on the Bench four years longer. Out of nine members of the Court, therefore, Woodrow Wilson will probably name seven during his eight years in the White House.

War Revives

Sugar Industry.

A pretty good evidence of the effect of the Wilson—Underwood tariff law on our beet sugar industry, prior to the outbreak of the European war, is shown in our imports of sugar beet seed, a product which we have been slow to develop in the United States and for which we have depended largely on Europe. In 1913 the beet sugar industry was doing well, and the producers had the President's promise that he intended them no harm. That year 12,049,000 pounds of sugar beet seed was imported from which to raise the sugar beet. In October, 1913, the Democrats welched on their promise, the duty on sugar was reduced 25 per cent, and slated for the free list shortly after, beet sugar production fell off about 25 per cent with prospect of reduction, and during the first 8 months of 1914 we imported but 4,700,000 pounds of seed. The importation fell to 3,030,000 pounds for the first 8 months of 1915, and then the stimulus of war orders for sugar commenced and the drum of the European guns set new life pulsating through the beet sugar industry. During the first eight months of the current year we imported nearly 16,000,000 pounds of sugar beet seed. And the Democrats aver that Wilson put the industry on its feet.

How Houston Helped.

All the members of the Wilson Cabinet, except Secretary of Agriculture Houston, were out on the stump during the campaign. If the truth were known, it is probable that Houston did as much as any member of the Cabinet in the way of net results for Wilson.

RECEPTION ROOM, HOTEL PARLOR

We would ask you not to let our remarkable offer conflict in your mind with such offers as have been made at Drug Stores and other such places by men who were not responsible or established anywhere, nor do they claim to be. As to ourselves we are located and established both. We guarantee our work and glasses both for five years in writing and as to the responsibility of our guarantee, we will give bankable references to those desiring same. These glasses, that we are advertising, are kind that usually sell, at most optical establishments, at $5.00, and in some cases even more. This is the first time, to our knowledge, that such an offer has been made by responsible people who will stand back of their work and who cannot be branded as fakers, as some have. We will make these prices this visit only and no more. Call and see us and we will explain how these prices can be made. You are not obliged to buy glasses, and all examinations Absolutely Free.

News Briefs

From Washington.

Washington—The high cost of living is probably affecting the people of the National Capital as seriously as the residents of any section of the United States. Prices of commodities classed as necessities of life have increased from twenty-five to fifty per cent, but wages remain practically unchanged. The Associated Charities announces great apprehension as to the needs of the poor during the winter, and the Gospel Mission, which operates a cheap restaurant, says it has never before had such a run as at present from the people who are compelled to buy their food at a place where they can get it at one cent per dish. It is very evident that while some people have profited greatly from war-order prosperity, there are many thousands who do not find their incomes keeping pace with the increased cost of living.

Refusing to Help Colored Labor.

The Department of Labor takes a great deal of credit to itself for having aided in securing, as it claims, employment for sixteen thousand people during the month of August, according to a pamphlet just issued by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The report shows that exceedingly few of the persons who secured employment were employed in the Southern States. In fact, out of 26,791 persons applied for in August only 128 were applied for in all the Southern states. The Department has acknowledged that it cooperated in securing employment in Northern states for Southern Negro laborers. But, shortly before election, when it developed that a number of Southern Negro men were going north to secure employment, the government instructed its agents to discontinue securing northern employment for these people. In view of its official report showing that out of 26,791 persons applied for only 128 were applied for in Southern states, people are wondering how the Department can possibly justify its order for the discontinuance of efforts to find northern employment for the men who are manifestly not wanted in the South.

Practical Economy

Baking powders made from alum or phosphate may be bought for a trifle less than Royal Baking Powder, which is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes.

Alum powders are not only cheap, but they differ greatly in leavening power.

If a cheap baking powder is used for a fine cake and the cake turns out a failure there is a waste of costly materials worth more than a whole can of the cheap baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder produces the finest food, and its use therefore, results in an actual saving.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hughes were down from Artemus last Sunday; they will move into their new home on Pine St. about Jan. 15th.

Geo. M. Faulkner, who lives about five miles down the river, fell and broke his hip, one day last week; while he is suffering some it is not thought that he is in a serious condition.

One of our most prominent salesmen, who sells shoes, has received word from his house not to sell or, offer to sell any more shoes until times loosen up; well we hate to see this and it's no use to say "I told you so."

Have you got the habit? If not you should get it; that is to attend the Star Theatre at least three times a week. The pictures are fine and each of them teach a moral if you will keep up with them. Mr. Davidson has arranged to have one of the best Serials ever put on the screen and you should not fail to see each picture.

Jas. M. Wilson, the Mayor and merchant, says that everything has advanced in price except iron lasts and last stands; well that is some consolation; we may be able to afford a last to mend our old shoes.

James P. Reeder, of Knoxville, was here the first of the week; he is still selling dry goods but doesn't know how long his job will last as one other has had to stop.

S. S. Peters, Noah Smith and W. H. Campbell Jr. were appointed Jury Commissioners by Judge Sampson and have about completed the filling of the jury wheel.

If you want to make a real hit subscribe for the Advocate, or come in and pay up your subscription, then the hit is already made and you will have twelve months more good luck.

Mike Powell, who is ill with typhoid, is improving and we hope to see him out again soon, and that the proper precaution will be taken to prevent the spread of this terrible disease.

Now that cold weather has set in we are real sorry for the fellows who compose the order of the "Never Sweats" as it is so cold that they cannot get out on the Court House Campus and talk about their neighbors.

C. M. Kelly, who moved here with his family, is now a partner with Perkins & Co., and we predict that the Company will have a continued success as Mr. Kelly is a man of sterling qualities and one who makes friends and keeps them.

(Chas. H. (Hank) Smith is at Garrett, Floyd County and is assistant store manager for the Company and we say here and now that the Company could not get a better man than Hank for that important and responsible place.

Mr. S. D. Woolly, representing the Gulf Refining Co., was here last Monday letting the fellows have gasoline; he is a jolly good fellow and he certainly does sell the best gasoline we have ever tried. He will be here again in sixty days.

Birt Catron is responsible for the story that Capt. John H. Lawson is in possession of an animal which is a cross between a ground hog and a bench legged dog and that John is trying to make people believe it is a real hog.

The last term of Judge Sampson's court will close Saturday, and after a term at Williamsburg he will go to Frankfort to start in with the "Big Boys" and we are sure he will make a record to feel proud of.

Did you ever stop to think how hard a mule can kick, or how deep a kitten can scratch, or how high a man can be thrown from a spring board, or how little you knew when it comes to a question you don't know a thing about, or how little you feel when you undertake to tell a fellow he is wrong and he convinces you that you are the fellow that's wrong? If so, why in the Sam Hill don't you quit?

CORROBORATION

Of Interest to Barbour-ville Readers.

For months Barbourville citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills, by residents of this locality.

Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable?

Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had, not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement?

The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Barbourville reader.

R. B. Dugger, Mt. Vernon Avenue, Somerset, Ky., says: "I had a steady ache across the small of my back and trouble with the kidney secretions. Sometimes I couldn't work on account of the severe pain in my back.
Doan's Kidney Pills gave me quick relief."

DOAN'S NEVER FAIL.
OVER EIGHT YEARS LAT-ER Mr. Dugger said: "I use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally and they never fail to bring good results."

Do You Have Sour Stomach.

If you are troubled with sour stomach you should eat slowly and masticate your food thoroughly, then take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. Obtainable everywhere.

To The Traveling Public.

You are urgently requested to use the entire road and not drive in the same track all the time as such a procedure will cause the road to rut and, even though it be only for a small depth, water will run down in the ruts and cause the road to deteriorate. A rut is very hard to repair, especially until it gets to be three or four inches deep.

The people should realize the fact that they are paying for the road themselves and should try to preserve same because it is their property.

Her Son Subject to Croup

"My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, New Kensington, Pa. "I put in my sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." Obtainable everywhere.

"Before taking Chamberlain's Tablets my husband suffered for several years from indigestion, causing him to have pains in the stomach and distress after eating. Chamberlain's Tablets relieved him of these spells right away," writes Mrs. Thomas Casey, Geneva, N.Y. Obtainable everywhere.
